CORAM : DR.D.Y.CHANDRACHUD, J.

12th January, 2005.

P.C. :

The Inquiry Report in pursuance of the disciplinary proceedings that have been convened by the First Respondent has been submitted. The disciplinary authority is still to apply its mind to the Inquiry Report and to decide what further steps to take thereon. At that stage, the Petitioner moved the Labour Court and sought an order of injunction. The Labour Court was of the view that no strong prima facie case has been made out for injuncting the employer from taking due steps in accordance with law in pursuance of the disciplinary proceedings. That order has been confirmed in revision by the Industrial Court.

Counsel appearing on behalf of the First Respondent makes a statement before the Court that the First Respondent in processing the matter further will take steps in accordance with law.

The orders passed by the Courts below do not suffer from any jurisdictional error of any nature or error that would warrant the invocation of the supervisory jurisdiction of this Court. There is no merit in the Petition which is accordingly dismissed.
